	Subject was carried on with the firm of Messrs. K. S. Aiyer & Co of Bombay it was enquired that Mr Lakshman Rao was to be Articled under the Jambe of the said firm.
	I subd with previous reference Mr B. Lakshman is now studying under Messrs K. S. Aiyer and Co at Bombay. The conditions on which Messrs. Merchant & Co offer to train Mr. Lakshman Rao are almost the same as those offered by Messrs Aiyer & Co. In both cases the premium is Rs 3000. It is believed that this amount has already been paid to Messrs Aiyer Co. Perhaps no action is necessary on this reference unless the matter comes up to Govt. through Comptr.

Comptroller, Mysore Government,
B A N G A L O R E.

Dear Sir,

As requested by Mr. B.L.Rao, M.A., Mysore Govt. Scholar, we have pleasure in stating our terms etc. for taking him up as an Articled Clerk in our Office.

For your information, we may mention that our Firm has already been appointed as Auditors, aswellas Accountants, to various Limited Companies and Private Firms; such as, Mills, Art Studios, Import & Export Firms, Laundries, Cabinet Makers, Insurance Cos., Dairies, Factories, Shipping Cos., in Bombay aswellas Up-country. We have also been engaged on several occasions as Experts in giving Evidence on points of Accounts, for investigating Frauds, Misappropriations, etc., for allocating & adjusting shares in Trust-Estates, and such other Legal Work, by various leading European aswellas Indian Solicitors & Notaries Public. Our Mr. Merchant is Principal to The London Commercial Institute, Coaching Establishment for Accountant Students, Recognised by the Govt. He also wrote, in 1914, two Works on Accountancy (Advanced), the Reviews whereon are sent, herewith, for your perusal, together with a Copy of the Institute Institute's Prospectus. Besides, there are many chances of his being appointed Professor of Accounting & Auditing at the Govt. College of Commerce, for the Govt. Auditors" Exams.

As regards the Premium for Articleship, we shall charge your Scholar Rs.3,000/- in all, Rs.900/- to be paid in advance at the time of entering into Articles, and the balance by three equal six-monthly instalments of Rs.700/- each, the first of such instalment to be payable nine months after the first payment of Rs.900/-. The said Premium of Rs.3,000/- will include the Fees of Rs.400/- for coaching him up for the Inter. & Final Exams., at The London Commercial Institute, directed by Mr. Merchant. Our Premium may seem rather heavy, but please carefully note that we are conscientious workers, and that no portion of the work entrusted to our Firm will be left unseen or undone by any of our Articled Clerks.

Hope, we have made ourselves quite clear to you, but should there be any other information wanted by you, we shall be very glad to furnish you with same.

Awaiting the favour of your esteemed commands, which shall always have our best attention.

We beg to remain,

Dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

Kanroz K. Merchant & Co.
